

Alice in Wonderland

Level 1 pictograms
+
text

Co-funded by the European Union

movetia

Austrian and Moroccan
Exchanges of mobility
Support a mobility
Exchange and mobility

Plural
Words

Reading instructions

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK?

We recommend displaying the book page by page.

This book can be read collaborately in class. To ensure everyone can read the text, we suggest showing the book on a large screen.

Its format is also designed for individual reading.

LEVEL 1, WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Level 1 includes the text and pictograms.

Pictograms enables greater inclusion of all the students.

They also offer an alternative reading support to the text.

The level of the text has been adapted to ensure greater understanding.

Most of the pictograms have been generated on arasaac.org.

Some pictograms, such as the characters, have been created for the Plural Words project.

The characters

ALICE

A curious young girl who is not afraid of adventures.

THE WHITE RABBIT

Always late and in a hurry!

THE CATERPILLAR

The wise Caterpillar always offers good advices.

THE CHESHIRE CAT

Beware if you meet the Cheschire Cat, you'll never know if its advices are trustworthy!

THE MARSH HARE & THE MAD HATTER

These two will always welcome you for a wild tea party.

THE QUEEN OF HEARTS

Some say she plays cricket with flamingos and hedgehogs...

Colour code

Some words have a coloured rectangle.

This stands for the characters to ease the reading.

This colour is also present in the frame of the pictogram.

This is Alice.

This is Alice.

ALICE

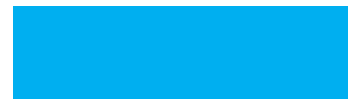

THE WHITE RABBIT

THE MARCH HARE

THE MAD HATTER

CATERPILLAR

THE CHESHIRE CAT

THE QUEEN OF HEARTS

Vocabulary

This pictogram means Wonderland.

It represents the place where the action is taking place.

This pictogram represents the word "and".

This series of pictograms refers to prepositions.

Table of content

1

Part 1

When Alice follows a rabbit who makes her fall into a mysterious hole.

2

Part 2

When Alice is welcomed in a party by a man with a strange smile.

3

Part 3

When Alice run into an enigmatic cat in the forest.

4

Part 4

When Alice is helped on her way by a new creature.

5

Part 5

When Alice ends up facing a very powerful and authoritarian woman.

6

Part 6

When Alice resists and manage to get out of the Wonderland.

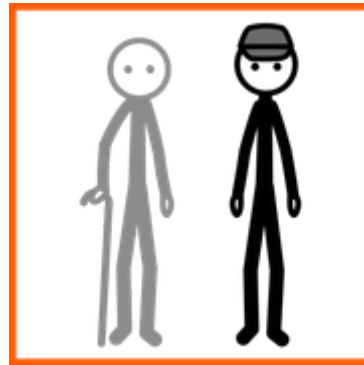

PART 1

This is Alice.

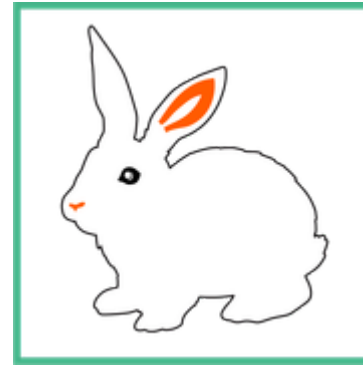

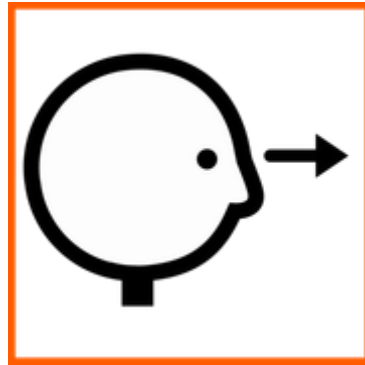

Alice is a young girl.

She is sitting by a tree.

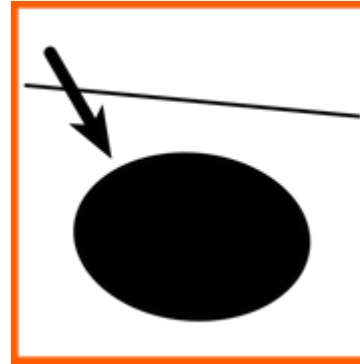

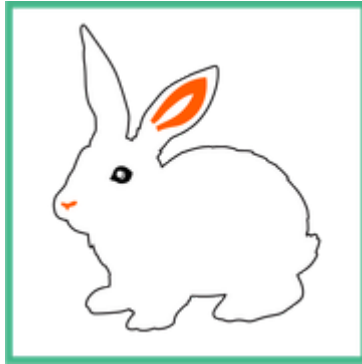

Alice sees a White Rabbit.

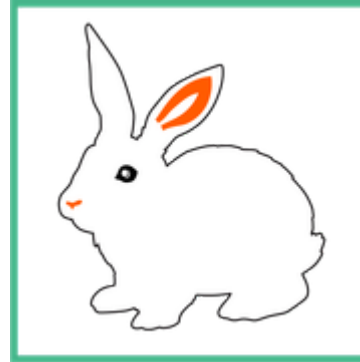

The White Rabbit is late.

He jumps into a hole.

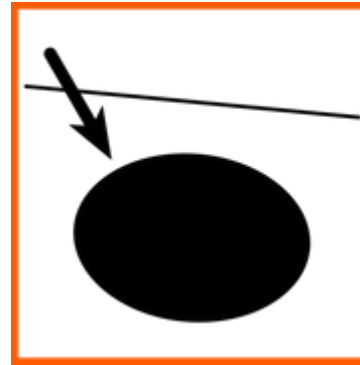

Alice

follows the White Rabbit.

Alice falls down a strange hole.

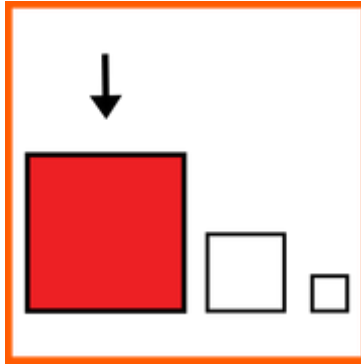

Alice lands.

She sees a small door.

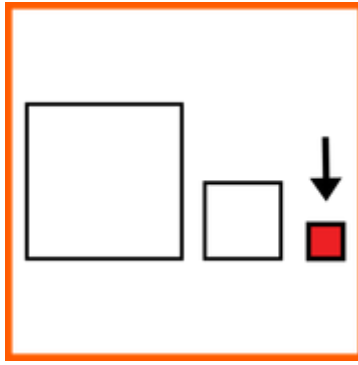

Alice is too big to go through the door.

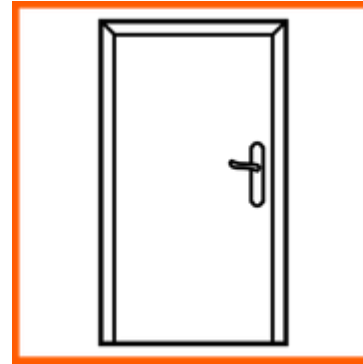

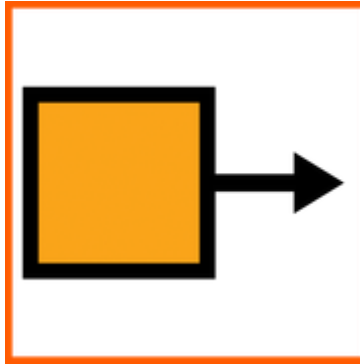

Alice drinks a mysterious beverage.

Alice becomes smaller and smaller.

She finally goes through the door.

Alice arrives in a garden.

This garden is called Wonderland.

PART 2

Alice finds a tea party.

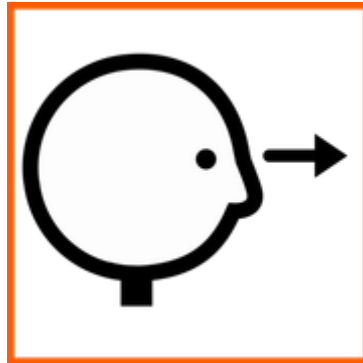

Alice

meets the Mad Hatter.

Alice

also meets the

March Hare

The Mad Hatter pours Alice some tea.

Alice decides to leave the tea party.

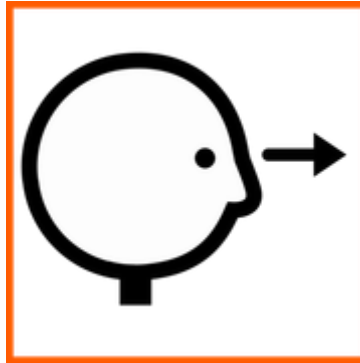

PART 3

Alice goes deeper into Wonderland.

Alice

meets the

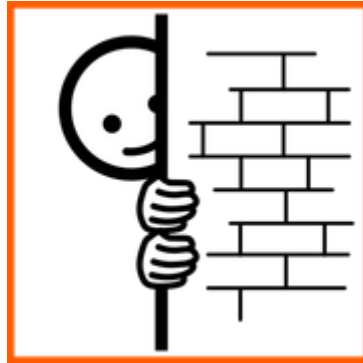

Cheshire Cat

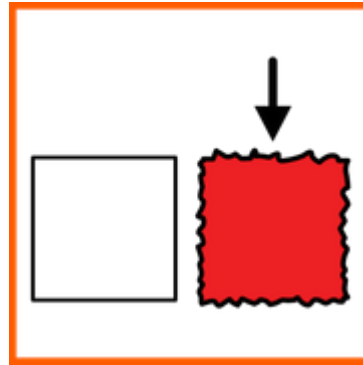

The Cheshire Cat is a purple-striped cat with a creepy smile.

The Cheshire Cat can disappear.

The Cheshire Cat gives Alice mysterious advices.

Alice listens curiously.

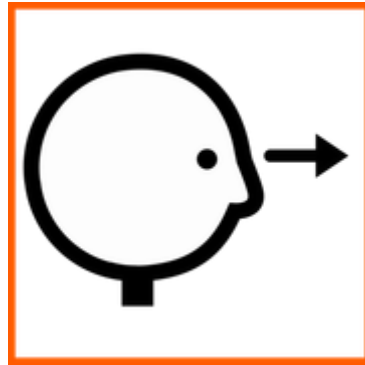

PART 4

Alice keeps walking into Wonderland.

Alice

meets a Caterpillar.

The Caterpillar is sitting on a mushroom.

The Caterpillar is calm.

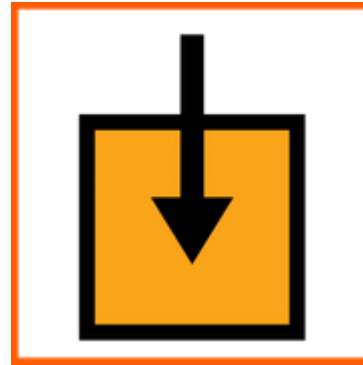

The Caterpillar gives Alice advices to help her.

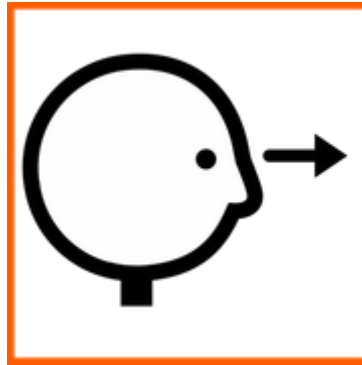

PART 5

Alice reaches the heart of Wonderland.

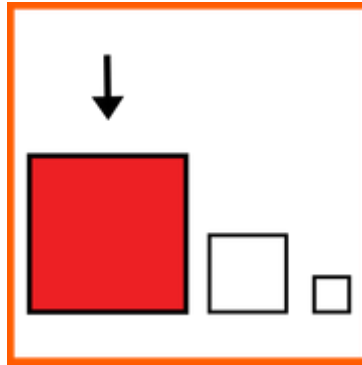

Alice

meets the Queen of hearts.

The Queen of hearts is tall and powerful.

Everyone listens to the Queen of hearts.

PART 6

The Queen of hearts is angry.

Someone ate her tarts.

The Queen of hearts

decides to chop

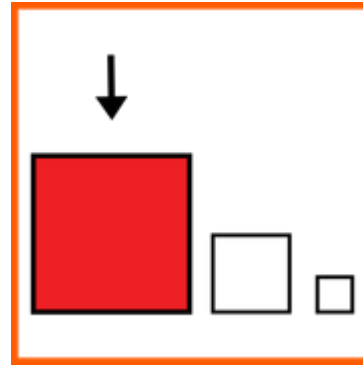

Alice's head.

But Alice is not scared.

Suddenly, Alice starts to grow bigger and bigger.

Everyone is afraid and runs away.

Alice

wakes up by the tree where everything started.

The end

Plural Words is a European project that started in October 2023. It is co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Commission to support school education.

The project aims to make learning and using Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) easier for young children in early childhood and primary schools. With creative tools and visual aids, Plural Words helps all students communicate, learn, and be included, ensuring equal opportunities for everyone.

WWW.PLURAL-WORDS.EU

The PLURAL WORDS project is co-financed by the ERASMUS+ programme of the EU. Its content reflects the views of the authors, and the European Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information therein. (Project code: 2023-1-FR01-KA220-SCH-000155095).

