Reading instructions

HOW TO READ THIS BOOK?

We recommend displaying the book page by page.

This book can be read collaborately in class. To ensure everyone can read the text, we suggest showing the book on a large screen.

Its format is also designed for individual reading.

LEVEL 1, WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Level 1 includes the text and pictograms.

Pictograms enables greater inclusion of all the students.

They also offer an alternative reading support to the text.

The level of the text has been adapted to ensure greater understanding.

Most of the pictograms have been generated on arasaac.org.

Some pictograms, such as the characters, have been created for the Plural Words project.

The characters

ODYSSEUS

King of Ithaca, Odysseus has been trying to go back home for 10 years.

POLYPHEMUS

A terrifying one-eyed Cyclops who lives on the island.

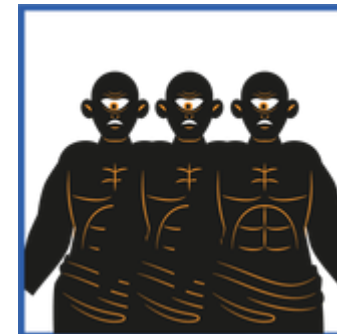

THE CREW

Odysseus' loyal crew follows him in his journey back home. But not all of them come back home...

THE CYCLOPS

Polyphemus' friends and neighbours who also live on the island.

Colour code

The names of the characters are coloured.

This aims to ease the reading.

This colour is also present in the frame of the pictogram.

PART 1

Odysseus

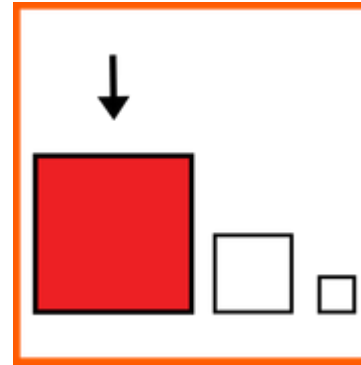

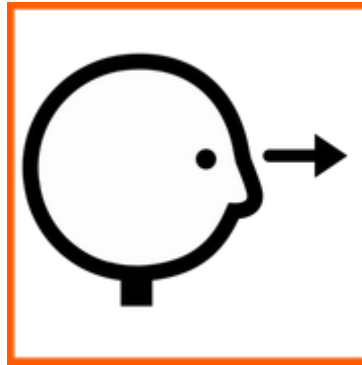

is the king of Ithaca.

Odysseus and his crew

travel to an island.

They

see gigantic footsteps.

They follow the footsteps to the cave.

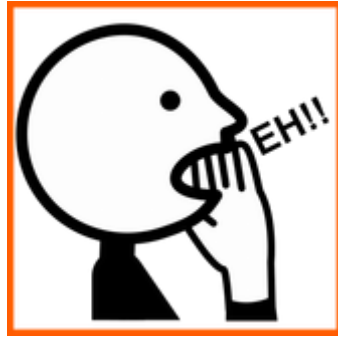

The crew

feels hungry and tired.

The crew

makes noise.

Polyphemus

hears

them

and comes quickly.

Polyphemus is a Cyclops.

Cyclops are scary giants with one eye.

The crew

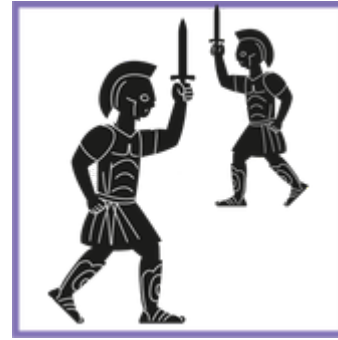

ate the food in the cave.

Polyphemus is angry.

He grabs two friends and eats them.

PART 2

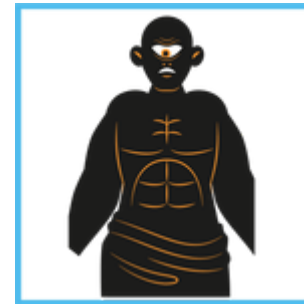

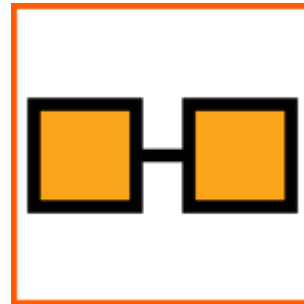

Odysseus and his crew

feel scared.

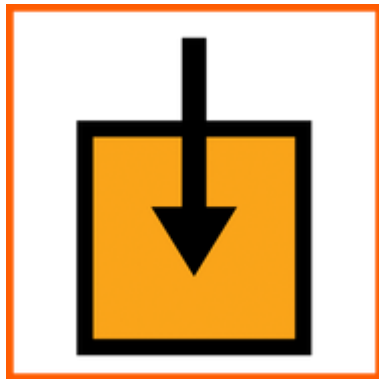

They are stuck in a cave with

Polyphemus.

The cave is full of stinky sheep.

Odysseus has a plan.

He

gives

Polyphemus

some wine.

Polyphemus

drinks the wine and feels dizzy.

The Cyclops

asks Odysseus: what is your name?

My name is

Nobody.

Polyphemus

laughs.

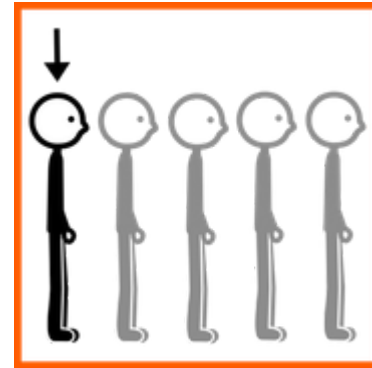

I

like you

Nobody.

I will eat you last.

PART 3

Polyphemus falls asleep.

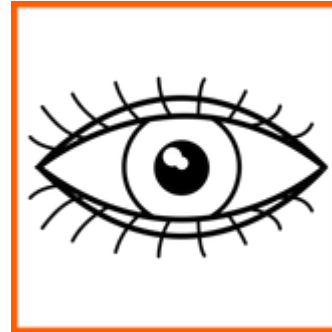

Odysseus has a plan.

They craft a weapon.

They

stab

Polyphemus' eye.

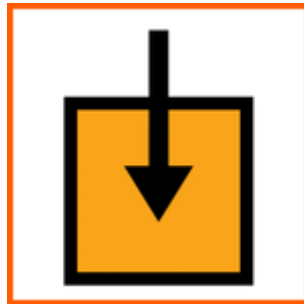

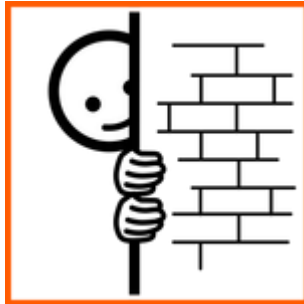

Polyphemus screams in pain.

He is blind. He can't see anything.

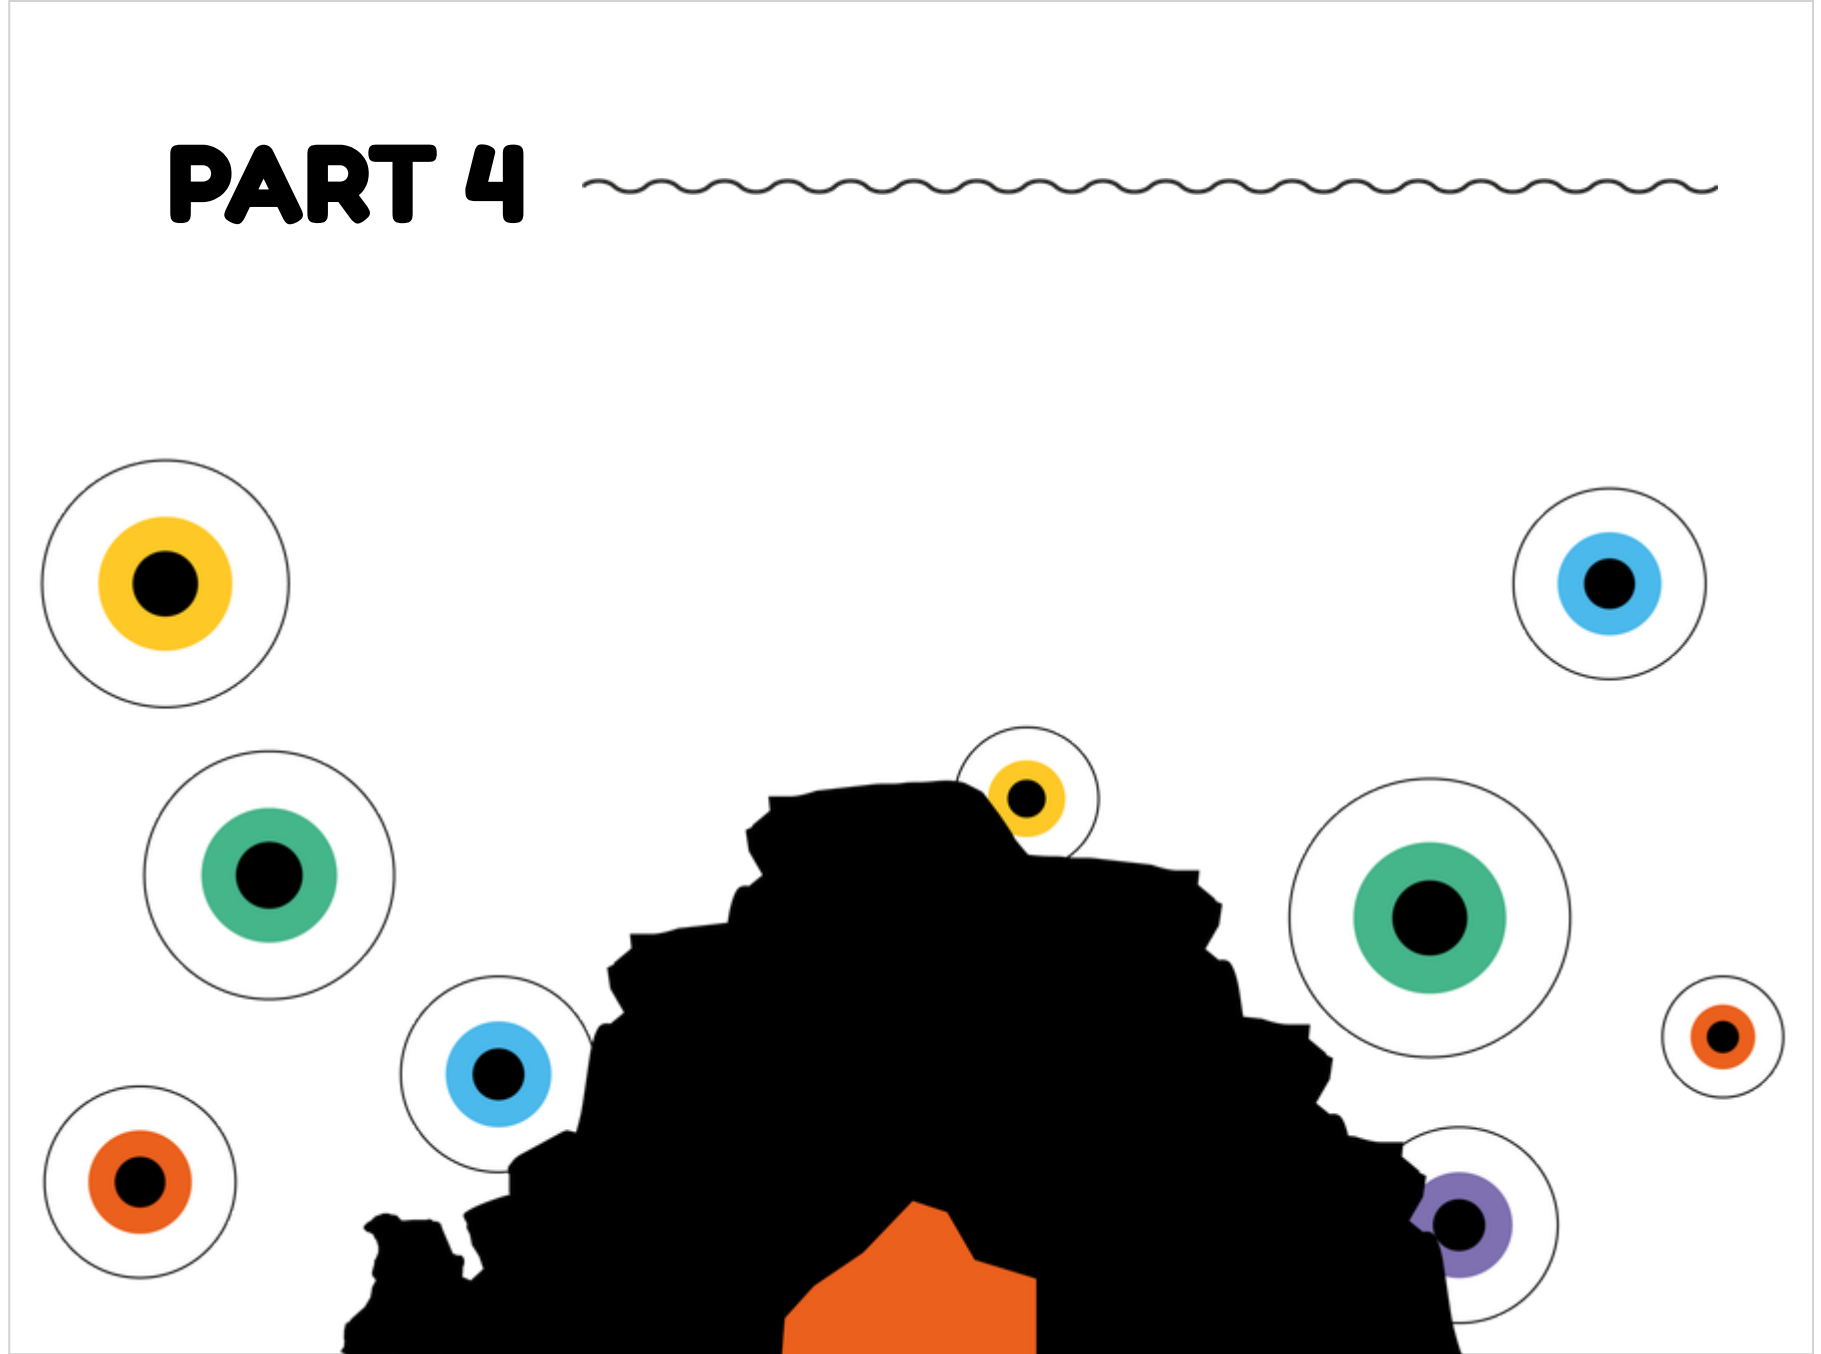

Odysseus and his crew

hide in the back of the cave.

PART 4

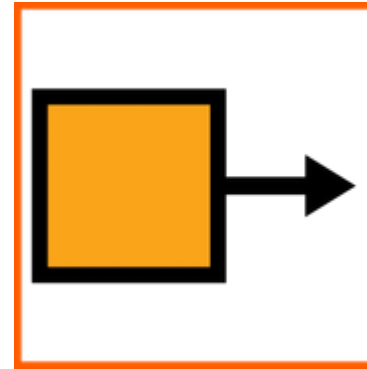

Other Cyclops

hear

Polyphemus

crying.

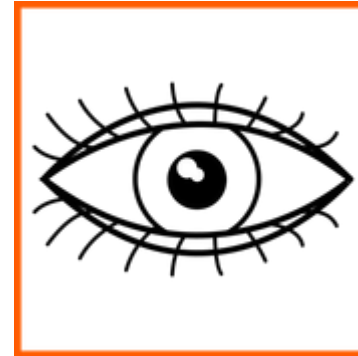

They come into the cave.

What is wrong?

Nobody stabbed my eye.

The Cyclops

think he is not telling the truth.

They

leave him alone in the cave.

PART 5

Polyphemus

can't see

Odysseus and his crew.

But he smells them.

Odysseus has a plan.

They tie themselves under the sheep's wool.

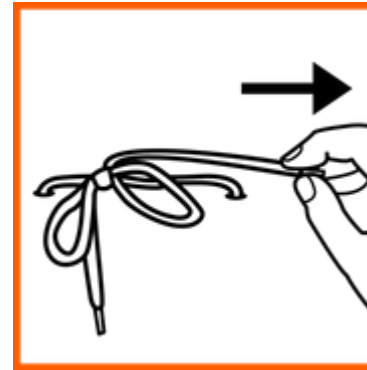

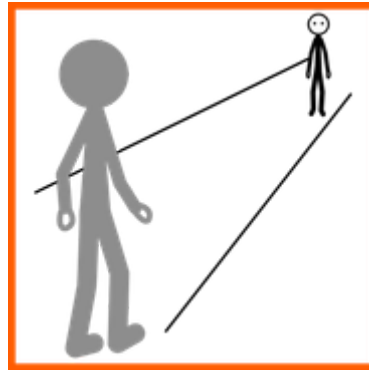

Polyphemus

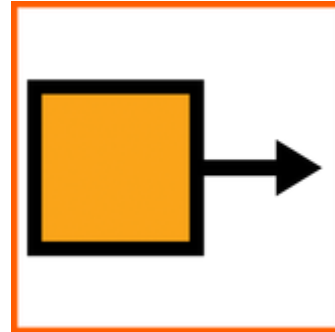

cannot see nor smell

them.

When they are far enough, they untie themselves.

They run to their ship.

This is how Odysseus and his crew escape from the island.

THE END

Plural Words is a European project that started in October 2023. It is co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Commission to support school education.

The project aims to make learning and using Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) easier for young children in early childhood and primary schools. With creative tools and visual aids, Plural Words helps all students communicate, learn, and be included, ensuring equal opportunities for everyone.
